

Evenings in Dallas – Nightlife

Downtown

Great downtown restaurants await your visit, such as Fuse, where the food is defined as Tex-Asian. Above the restaurant rests a bamboo garden and an outdoor pool - great for after dinner mingling with others. www.fusedallas.com. We also recommend Stephan Pyles, featuring New Millennium Southwestern Cuisine. The restaurant features stunning architecture and design to salute the arts of fine cooking and dining. www.stephanpyles.com.

Enjoy a late night beverage at any of the great downtown restaurants or hip lounges such as Obar, Iron Cactus, Stone Street Gardens, Clear Ultra Lounge, Mantus Lounge, City Tavern, Dallas Fish Market and many others.

Victory Park

After the Welcome Reception at the Dallas Convention Center, experience something new at Victory Park! Located in the heart of Dallas, the plaza creates a new urban center with a carefully assembled collection of emerging retail, distinctive dining, signature entertainment venues and more. Victory Park is touted as "a mini-Times Square" boasting one of the largest outdoor digital mediums in the world known as the Victory Park Super Screens.

We highly recommend Victory Tavern in Victory Park, which offers contemporary interpretations of American culinary classics with modern-day versions of American tavern and steakhouse favorites. Other restaurants include, Luna de Noche, Medina Oven & Bar and Craft. Visit www.victorypark.com for more information.

One of the hottest additions to Dallas nightlife is Ghostbar. Sip cocktails and step out to the glass floor while enjoying some of the most breathtaking views of the Dallas skyline on the 33rd floor of the W Dallas - Victory Hotel.

House of Blues is among the hottest entertainment and dining experiences in Dallas. From live music and distinctively southern inspired cuisine to the famous Sunday Gospel Brunch amidst an eclectic décor of outsider folk art, House of Blues is an amazing experience. Visit www.hob.com.

Check out Hard Rock Café Dallas, which is our newest addition to Victory Park. With a menu full of mouth-watering American classics, memorabilia from the biggest names in rock, signature cocktails, and a full complement of city-specific merchandise to memorialize your visit, the Hard Rock Cafe Dallas is one trip you just have to make. www.hardrock.com

West End Historic District

Be sure to head over to the West End Historic District where you can do some souvenir shopping and get a bite to eat without breaking the bank. Start your visit at Wild Bill's Western Store for some truly Texas souvenirs or buy yourself some custom made cowboy boots. The West End not only offers retail shops, but several budget friendly dining options to choose from too. Spaghetti Warehouse, a family favorite, will not let you down in service, taste or atmosphere. Sonny Bryan's, the most famous barbecue joint in Dallas, will cater to fans of brisket, rib and Texas style BBQ. And Hoffbrau's Steakhouse, a Texas tradition that's been serving Dallas for over two decades, features Texas-sized steaks, chicken, gulf shrimp, green salads and half-pound hamburgers. Check out www.meatballs.com; www.sonnybryansbbq.com; www.hoffbrausteaks.com and www.wildbillswestern.com or www.DallasWestEnd.org for more information.

West Village

Have lunch or dinner at Texas Land and Cattle in Uptown Dallas, for some Texas-tastin' steaks hot off the mesquite grill. At night, West Village becomes quite lively. It's a great place to window shop the district's hip boutiques or people-watch at one of several sidewalk cafes and trendy restaurants.

Unwind for the night with dinner at Mi Cocina in the West Village, offering Mexican dishes in a sleek and modern atmosphere. Village Burger Bar, a West Village twist on the burger joint, offers hamburgers, paninis and gourmet salads served in a comfortable, stylish setting. Tom Tom Asian Grill is a modern So-Ho style noodle house where noodle masters create a feast of convenience for the common and the kept. Other restaurants to enjoy in West Village are Lazare, Taco Diner, The Fish and others. www.westvil.com
